

50th Anniversary Symposium

ECOLOGY & EVOLUTIONARY BIOLOGY, THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Science. Posters. Networking. Careers. Free and open to all.

Join us in Tucson for a special symposium celebrating 50 years of discovery and innovation in our department. Together, we'll explore the impact of our research, reflect on our history, and look ahead to the exciting directions our field is heading. We warmly invite you to be part of this milestone celebration!

EEB 50 Symposium Speakers

Daniel Bolnick – University of Connecticut
(Eco-evolutionary dynamics, ecological genetics, adaptation and speciation)

Marlene Zuk – University of Minnesota
(Behavioral ecology, sexual selection, evolutionary physiology, host-parasite evolution)

Michael J. Donoghue – Yale University
(Phylogenetics, macroevolution, plant evolutionary biology, comparative methods)

Brian McGill – University of Maine
(Macroecology, biodiversity patterns, global change ecology, ecological forecasting)

Susan Harrison – University of California, Davis
(Community ecology, plant ecology, biodiversity conservation, climate change ecology)

Suzanne Alonzo – University of California, Santa Cruz
(Behavioral ecology, sexual selection, social evolution, marine evolutionary ecology)

Michael W. Nachman – University of California, Berkeley
(Population genetics, evolutionary genomics, adaptation, mammalian evolution)
